

Steve Rees – Alberta, Canada (CHES)

IFHE Executive Committee Leadership Summary.

Steve Rees is retired after spending over 45 years in the field of healthcare engineering. He attended the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology and holds three trade certificates and is also a graduate of the University of Alberta's Construction Administration Program.

Steve is a Certified Facility Manager and an Executive Coach. In the past 12 years of his career Steve held various executive positions with Alberta Health Services including Vice President of Facilities Maintenance and Engineering, Senior Program Officer, Capital Management and Chief Program Officer, Capital Management.

Steve served as President of the Canadian Healthcare Engineering Society from 2005-07 and President of the International Federation of Healthcare Engineering (IFHE) from 2022-24. He is currently the Past President of IFHE.

Executive Leadership History

- Over 45 years of experience in healthcare engineering
- University of Alberta – Construction Administration
- Northern Alberta Institute of Technology – 3 Trade Certifications
- International Facilities Management Association – Certified Facility Manager Designation
- Held positions of Vice President of Facilities Maintenance and Engineering and Chief Program Officer for Alberta Health Services in Canada
- Past President of the Canadian Healthcare Engineering Society (CHES)
- Past President of IFHE (2022-2024)
- Member of ExCo for the past 13 years
- Currently a member of the IFHE Communications Committee, Website Committee, and Chair of the IFHE Awards Committee